HISTORY

Knox Presbyterian Church

ON NOVEMBER 24th, 1902, Mr. C. V. Thompson was appointed by the First Church, Pensacola, Florida, to confer with C. F. Zeek, George W. Johnston and A. D. Morrison in reference to locating a Mission Sabbath School in the North-eastern part of the city, on what was known then as Stoddard Avenue now 12th Avenue. On January 4th, 1903, the first service was held in a little storeroom. The day was bright and balmy enough for open doors and windows. About seventy persons were present and the work was begun under most favorable auspices. The first rally day after organization showed an average attendance of 51. In 1904 the largest attendance was 110 but when yellow fever broke out in the city the attendance was reduced to 60. The year 1907 was one of greatest discouragement. The attendance was very irregular and in general very small, so much so that at times the most faithful workers felt the strain of unappreciated efforts. The school continued to make progress and by the generosity of one man it was enabled to secure a permanent home and grow into a church. Mr. William Fisher, Sr., Elder in the First Church provided in his will that $2,500.00 should be given to this enterprise provided a similar amount was given by members of the church and others, to secure grounds and erect a building. These sums were increased by a fortunate investment in lots which were afterwards sold at a profit of $1,200.00 making in all $6,200.00 which was used in the purchase of five lots in New City and in the erection of the present church edifice, thus enabling the new Church to begin its work entirely free from debt.

The Organization of the New Church

A Commission of Florida Presbytery met in the Church building at 7:30 p. m., January

8th, 1911. Present Rev. Lynn R. Walker, Moderator, Rev. J. S. Sibley, Rev. H. C. Cushman and Elder W. S. Garfield. Rev Lynn R. Walker opened the meeting with prayer after which W. S. Also the following Trustees were elected: F. F. Bingham, C. J. Oerting and Walter Betsworth. The new church proceeded at once to choose a Pastor and Rev. K. L. McIver of Florala, Alabama, was unanimously elected and the salary was fixed at $1,200.00 to be paid monthly. This call was accepted and the new Pastor met with the session for the first time February 2nd, 1911. On February 3rd, the session met and the following members were received from the First Presbyterian Church, Mrs. J. N. Andrews, Charles

Steward and Mrs. Sylvia Steward, and from St. Andrews Church, Mrs. May Johnston and from Second Presbyterian Church, Memphis, Tenn., Mrs. Laura M. S. Miller. Also from First Church, Pensacola, Mrs. Alice M. George. Also received on profession of faith J. M. Smith, Cordelia Adams and Margaret McIver, Hazel M. Morrison. The New Church was organized January 8th, 1911, with 59 Charter Members and in one year from date this membership had grown by the addition of 45 new members making 104 members by the close of the first year.

The Building of the Manse

The new Church was scarcely six months old when it determined to secure a home for its Pastor. On July 11th, 1911, plans were accepted and a loan determined upon. On January 8th, 1912, the manse was reported completed at a cost of $3,260.14. The building Committee consisted of W. F. Breen, C. J. Oerting and J. M. Gillis. Mr. Breen superintended the building of the manse. This building on lot adjoining the church could not be reproduced for less than $10,000.00. And whilst others did well in raising funds for its erection, the Dorcas Society deserves credit for their unfailing interest and abundant self-denial. The manse is practically free from debt.

Members received annually since the organization of the Church, January 8th, 1911.

New Officers Elected Since Organization

Mr. E. B. Calhoun was elected Deacon, May 12th, 1914.

On December 2nd, 1917, Mr. A. S. Johnson who had formerly served as an Elder in the Second Presbyterian Church, Birmingham, was added to our Eldership. In June, 1918, Mr. John R. Lewis and Henry T. Wicke were added to the deaconate. In September, 1919, Mr. Don McLellan was elected Elder and Mr. C. F. Steward, Clinton Tompkins and A. F. Wicke were elected Deacons.

Since the organization of the Church we have lost by death Mr. George W. Johnston one of the original Elders and the first Clerk of Session. Mr. Johnston was very active in labors and generous with his gifts when this new Church most needed help. Mr. James McLean Gillis has passed from us. He was one of the first Deacons of the Church and was beloved by his brethren, faithful and efficient as Treasurer of the Church from its organization until his death. Mr. Henry T. Wicke was removed by death when he had served as a Deacon for less than one year. But he had served long enough to give promise of great usefulness in the Church. And in the past year (1920) the Church has sustained an unusual loss in the death of Mr. C. F. Zeek, one of the three original Elders. He filled more responsible positions than any man in our church. He was Clerk of Session since May, 1915, Treasurer of the Knox Church, Treasurer of the Presbytery of Florida for twenty years or more and superintendent of the Sabbath School from its organization in 1903 until his death in 1920.

Report on New Church Building Fund

At a joint meeting of the Elders and Deacons September 14th, 1920, it was decided unanimously to recommend to the congregation that we proceed to raise a fund for the completion of our church by the building of an auditorium in front of the present building. This recommendation was approved by the congregation at a meeting held September 26th, 1920, and the following were chosen members of the Building Committee: A. S. Johnson, A. D. Morrison, C. L. Tompkins, A.

F. Wicke, A. H. Green, H. W. Gibbs, Mrs. Henry Wicke, Mrs. C. S. Bonacker. Mr. Wicke was elected Treasurer and the Pastor was requested to act as chairman of the Building Committee. The first gift for the New Church was from the Junior Christian Endeavor Society and other sums have been added bringing the amount in bank to $356.90. No canvass has been made of the congregation and will not be until conditions are more favorable as to cost of labor and material.

Succession of Pastors and Supplies

Rev. K. L. McIver was elected the first Pastor January 8th, 1911, and served until March 15th, 1914.

On May 12th, 1914, Rev. B. B. Shankel from Columbia Seminary began his term of service as stated supply and closed his term of service August 28th, 1914.

On July 13th, 1915, Rev. I. E. Phillips began to supply the church and continued to serve until May, 1917.

On September 2nd, 1917, the present Pastor, Rev. Wm. E. McIlwain began his labors as Pastor of the Church and was duly installed Pastor 1st Sabbath of December, 1917.

The First Foreign Missionary From This Church

On December 20th, 1914, Mr. R. Clyde Douglas became a member of this Church. He was afterwards received under the care of Florida Presbytery as a candidate for the Ministry and was educated at the University of Florida and Union Seminary in Virginia. He and his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Leyburn Douglas are now busy studying the language and will soon be prepared for their life-work in a great mission field in China of which The City of Kashing is the center.

The Church will not forget our own Mission Workers—the first to go from our Church.
